

THE PROBATE COURT OF WORTH COUNTY

The Probate Court is a court of limited jurisdiction responsible for the probating or proving of all wills of Worth County residents. The Probate Court also handles vital records (birth & death records from 1919 to present), marriage licenses, firearms licenses, estates, guardianship's of minors and incapacitated adults, involuntary treatment of persons suffering from mental illness and/or drugs or alcohol along with numerous miscellaneous duties.

General Information

We are located on the first floor of the Worth County Courthouse. Our hours are 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. You may come in anytime to receive copies of vital records and to file documents for estates and guardianship's. Applications for a firearm or marriage license are issued ONLY between the hours of 8:30-4:00 PM.

Important Notice

The Probate Court is committed to serving the general public and all citizens of Worth County by creating an environment of equality, fairness and integrity, as well as excellent customer service. We will be happy to assist you with any questions or concerns you may have about the services of this office or the procedures you must follow for a particular process. Please be advised, however, that state law prohibits our staff from rendering legal advice, restating the law or recommending specific ways to pursue legal action. It is never our intent to seem unhelpful or uncooperative. If you have a problem involving the interpretation of the law, we suggest you contact an attorney licensed in the State of Georgia.
